

Applying to the Public Policy Certificate

The first step is to apply through the non-matriculated process:

NOTE: If you currently are a matriculated student at the U you can skip the non-degree seeking or undergraduate application process and submit this application directly.

You should follow the directions here for non-degree seeking applicants.

This should direct you to this page for undergraduate applications.

Admissions will be processed soon after each non-matriculated application deadline, early April, early July, early November, and mid-December.

Ignore the information under the “Undergraduate Admission Requirements” section and just proceed to the application linked further down. You should there find an option to mark “non-matriculated” as part of the application.
